

Not Too Young, Not Too Old

Aaron Carter

I'm not too young and I'm not too old Listen up everybody, this ain't Aaron's party part two
I'm older now, come and show me body
Girl, whatcha gonna do
Come and talk to me in the back seat
Baby backstreet
(Yeah, yeah) We could surf the board, surf the net
(Yeah)
Better yet, we could make a little bet
If we get together, yo, it's gonna be "Tha bomb"
Hit me on, baby, Aaron-Carter.com See, when it comes to girls, I'm not too young
(Know what I mean)
Baby face back up on the scene
But when I get in trouble, hey I'm not too old
I pull my cap way down say I'm thirteen years old
That's how we roll Throw your hands up now, let the music take control
This is how we roll
I'm not too young, and I'm not too old
Here we go
Throw your hands up now, let the music take control
This is how we roll
I'm not too young, I'm not too old It's the A to the A, to the R-O-N
I'm all grown up now run and tell your friend
It's all sewn up, now, where do I begin
Don't even player hate, tryin' to say I look ten I'ma tell you again
I'm all up in the video, catch me in the studio that's my life bro
It's in my blood, hey, it ain't my fault
You wanna step to me, we can take it to the asphalt Shoot some hoops, kid slam dunk the funk
Battle on the roller blades, you're you callin' me a punk?
Bring on the skateboards, or the BMX
Show me what you've got is that all? Please next I'll wipe the floor with you, where's the concentration?
Don't even talk about the Sony play station
I'll make it happen if its games that you want
Aaron Carter got you open
Don't front, don't front, just roll Throw your hands up now, let the music take control
This is how we roll
I'm not too young, and I'm not too old
Here we go
Throw your hands up now, let the music take control
This is how we roll

I'm not too young, I'm not too old
He's steppin' out with the older boys
Cover up your ears 'cause we making mad noise
He's steppin' out with the younger girls
Cover up your eyes 'cause we rock the world
He's steppin' out with the older boys
Cover up your ears 'cause we're making mad noise
He's steppin' out with the younger girls
Cover up your eyes 'cause we rock the world
See, when it comes to takin' all the girls for a cruise
(In my ride)
All I need is pillows
Hello I'm? not too young
(Hello)
(Dururudu)
My cellular rung
(Dururudu) Switch it off, yo, hit me in the pager
A real teen-ager
(You got a pager?)
With the fake beard battin' in the majors
That's how we roll
And when it suits me
I'm anywhere between 12 and 18 years old
Here we go
Throw your hands up now, let the music take control
This is how we roll
I'm not too young, and I'm not too old
Here we go
Throw your hands up now, let the music take control
This is how we roll
I'm not too young, and I'm not too old
(Cause we rock the world)
Here we go
Throw your hands up now, let the music take control
This is how we roll
I'm not too young, and I'm not too old
(Cause we rock the world)
Here we go
Throw your hands up now, let the music take control
This is how we roll
I'm not too young, I'm not too old
