

Disfigured

Rag'n'Bone Man

I can't give up the ghost or cut the rope that talks you downI you walk in comatose Obliges the cold
follow the crowdWe'll long live all those lifes
You tell yourselves
You will be alright
But There's no kiss goodbye
Only the end
Only the nightI pitched in like you did selflessly I thought you'd spare the time The ones I loved the most Disfigured it all the beautiful lifeWe'll all live all those lifes
You tell yourselves
You will be alright
But There's no kiss goodbye
Only the end
Only the nightIt's a cold way to go to the hollow below
