

I'm the Cure

Midnight Oil

Tell all your friends I'm the cure
Tell them again and again
Watching the walls, spinning in doors
I can bring you peace of mind Use me whenever you please
Sweeter than sweet memories
Every thing's neat, avoiding the heat
I can give you peace of mind All this pressure I can't handle Every thing else becomes dim
You're so much better than them
Waiting around for something to happen
Bring you this instant relief
