

Oh Juliet

Joel Crouse

A couple of drinks makes it all so easy
Strangers become lovers every night
I could tell you're wounded because you cry so freely
As you tell your story with those lonely eyes
Oh Juliet, You're so beautiful and yet
I don't have the heart to break your heart
I can't believe I'm saying this
'Cause I can almost taste your kiss
But I can't finish what you want to start
Oh Juliet, stay innocent
You're looking at me like I must be crazy
'Cause you know I know how good this would be
For a superman or a savior you're a sweet dream
How about I start by saving you from me
Oh Juliet, You're so beautiful and yet
I don't have the heart to break your heart
I can't believe I'm saying this
'Cause I can almost taste your kiss
But I can't finish what you want to start
Oh Juliet, stay innocent
