Love Comes Love Goes

Poco

Do you ever think of me
And the way it used to be?
You and me, the two of us like one
We thought it'd just begunBut you know love comes and love goes
While heartaches hardly ever show
Till tears come and tears go
And they're the ones you'll never knowDo you still remember when
You first reached to hold me?
And we'd pretend the world was yours and mine
Lost in dreamless timeBut you know love comes and love goes
While heartaches hardly ever show
Till tears come and tears go
And they're the ones you'll never know
