

Labyrinth

Elisa

just like a spy through smoke and lights I escaped through the backdoor of the world and I saw things getting smaller fear as well as temptation now everything is reflection as i make my way through this labyrinth and my sense of direction is lost like the sound of my steps
scent of dried flowers
and I'm walkin' through the fog walkin' through the fog
i see my memories in black and white they are neglected by space and time i stored all my days in boxes i left my wishes so far behind i find my only salvation is playin' hide and seek in this labyrinth and my sense of connection
chorus words sounds music and i'm spinnin' in words sounds music and i'm spinnin' out but i want to stay here cause i'm waiting for the rain and i want it to wash away everything everything everything chorus
