

It's Been A Long Time

Rakim

"It's been a long time"

"It's been a long time"

"It's been a long time"

"It's been a long time"

".Rakim, the microphone soloist"[Rakim]

Follow procedures, the crowd couldn't wait to see this

Nobody been this long awaited since Jesus

Who wouldn't believe this, I heard the word on the street is

I'm still one of the deepest on the mic since Adidas

They said I changed the times from the rhymes that I thought of

So I made some more to put the New World in Order with Mathematics, put your status above the average

And help you rappers, make paragraphs with graphics

Cause new days is dawning, new ways of performing

Brainstorming, I write and watch the night turn to morning

On and on and, I got the whole world responding

Rock, I keep it hot and blow the spot without warning

The Emperor, well known for, inventing a sentence

full of adventure, turning up the temperature

Rush with adrenaline, how long has it been again to be in the state of mind that Rakim is in?"It's been a long time"

"Rakim, the microphone soloist"

"It's been a long time"

"It's been a long time"

"Rakim"[Rakim]

When I'm out propping, either, hanging or shopping

People see me stop and ask me when the album dropping

The wait is over, in-formation like a soldier

like I told ya, greater stronger, now that I'm older

I broke the, code of silence with overloads of talents

My only challenge, is not to explode in violence

I'm Asiatic, and blazing microphones a habit

At least once during the course of a day, it's automatic

In ghetto apparel, mind of a Egyptian Pharoah

Far from shallow, thoughts travel like an arrow

Allah's monotony, so far they can't stop me

You know, Ra want property like Mumar Khadafi

More thoughts than Bibles, recital, taught disciples

A sawed off mic, so words scatter like a rifle

Thoughts that's trifle, I'm busting these for you
Hey yo, technical difficulties is through "It's been a long time"
"Rakim, the microphone soloist"
"It's been a long time"
"Rakim, the microphone soloist"
"It's been a long time"
"Rakim, the microphone soloist"
"It's been a long time"
"It's been a long time" [Rakim]

When I float at night, I show em new heights, I go to write
They know I strike with new prototypes to blow the mic
Critics and biters, don't know where my source of light is Still leave authors and writers with arthritis
Cursed kids like the Pyramids when they found the style
First to ever let a rhyme flow down the Nile
The rebirth of hip-hop'll be dropped now cause the crowd didn't hear the original in a while
So be alarmed, what you bout to see is the bomb
Like, 3-D in 'Nam, vivid like CD-Rom
Info kept like "internet.com"
My note-book's my bond like the Holy Qu'ran
Since I came in the door, said it before
But no I ain't down with Eric B. no more
At night the open mic be inviting me to rhyme
So yo I'm online, it's been a long time "It's been a long time"
"It's been a long time"
"Rakim, the microphone soloist"
"It's been a long time"
"Rakim, the microphone soloist"
"It's been a long time"
"It's been a long time" "It's been a long time" {extended scratch}
"It's been a long time" {extended scratch}
"It's been a long time"
