

Through A Fence

Moor Hound

With a fumbling tongue
I will ask you
To be the light
That makes my world shine
Through a fence I will speak
And you will struggle to hear me
And see me the way
I see you
What a joy for my eyes
You're in my line of site
It's easy to call you beautiful
But what a different story it is
To call you mine
