The Unbeliever

Edguy

I am the madness carrying the torch,
lighting the wheat in your fields.
I am the eyes staring out of the dark,
I am the wear of your yields.When you give response away I grow,
I am more of you then you might know.Burning down... burning down...
It's a story of deceivers.
Burning down... burning down...
Put the blame on the unbeliever!I am the vision that comes to your mind when you denounce without regret.
"God" is the word in the bible you say,
I am the word that you spread!
