

The Unbeliever

Edguy

I am the madness carrying the torch,
lighting the wheat in your fields.
I am the eyes staring out of the dark,
I am the wear of your yields. When you give response away I grow,
I am more of you then you might know. Burning down... burning down...
It's a story of deceivers.
Burning down... burning down...
Put the blame on the unbeliever! I am the vision that comes to your mind when you denounce without regret.
"God" is the word in the bible you say,
I am the word that you spread!
