Titanic

New End Original

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

Two easy over
A greasy spoon
"Flies shit wherever they land"
I overheard that
I made a smile
We eat whatever we cancould you see beauty in long simple faces?
Weighted down, waving while they're drowing
Waving while they're drowing, waving while they're drowing"Congratulations you won the world" what would you do with it then?
Would you decorate it, surrender or burn it and start it again?Could you see beauty in long simple faces?
Weighted down, waving while they're drowning
Could you find beauty in sun?
Shining over, raining down, waving while they're drowning.
Waving while they're drowning. Waving while they're drowning. Drowning.Waving while they're drowning.
Waving while they're drowning.
Drowning (3x)Congratuations, you won the world.
