

No Sensitivity

Jimmy Eat World

Well, I've got my car, we could go and sit a while
I know it won't turn over but we'll get somewhere just the same
I'm through talking
(The strangest thing, but I feel safe when I'm lonely)
Don't take too much 'cause you'll get burned if it's all at one time
The world don't spin without you
I'm amazed you're standing still
Taking my kisses back
(Whoa)
I want my kisses back from you
No, your problems, they aren't problems
So be glad they never will
I'm taking my kisses back
(Whoa)
I want my kisses back from you
Take it easy, don't you get it? It's just an expression
Would you raise your voice every time a little dirt gets under?
Cry if you want
(The return of no sensitivity)
You don't have to scream to say something that you honestly mean
The world don't spin without you
I'm amazed you're standing still
I'm taking my kisses back
(Whoa)
I want my kisses back from you
And no, your problems, they aren't problems
So be glad they never will
I'm taking my kisses back
(Whoa)
I want my kisses back from you, from you, you
When you hear those footsteps calling
Isn't it obvious? Isn't it obvious?
It's okay if you don't answer
I thought it was obvious
I thought it was obvious
The world don't spin without you
I'm amazed you're standing still
Taking my kisses back from you
I want my kisses back from you

Your problems, they aren't problems
So thank god they never will
Taking my kisses back from you
I want my kisses back from you, you, you
I want my kisses back from you, you, you
I want my kisses back from you, you, you
