

Amanda

Reptar

Amanda loves you
All around the world
Calls your phone to talk just a little bit
A little voice inside
A different, lonely man
Comes to life to ask a question Do you love me? I can be a lot of things in different kinds of worlds
Silent, a thought between on the internet
How to dream about a boy who reaches out his hand
Run around and exercise just a little bit Do you love me?
Past life
The memory of touch
The last time
You wanted to die
More Scores on the keyboard lines
Last time
You wanted to die
Once you
Thought you were at home
But now the whole world sees you cry
