Shampoo Suicide

Broken Social Scene

Our lives were one
Our lives were one
Our lives were one
Our lives were one
Our lives, our livesIt's a broken heart
How they need something that's so hard
If you could take this time spent
I need went on to can feel it
I'm a broken heart, in a roomJust as we took a second look
This love was never strong
Cannot kill that, never will
Know the truth, the truth
Choose someone if you die
You suffer the broken hearted, I fall in loveAnd your teeth got wrapped around
Just can't speak, just sit in your house
Never felt tears of love and tears of heart
You had it, you still, all you still use shampoo
You had it all, you still use shampooIt felt so good and you never die
She will fuck with you, victory
I'm thinking of that kiss never will
I'm sitting cold there was love
You loved him take him, trust in youWe shall be, you had it all
Yeah blue, you had it
Who's there you're talkin' to
Like you're sucking on his dickAnd it tastes so good, dreams and a wish for you
I've seen the jaws and they taste so good
Saw the jaws and they taste so good
I've seen the jaws and they taste so good
Tasting the jaws and they taste so good
You've seen the jaws and they taste so good
