Decisions

Up Front

when times are tough and things look bad you've gotta look at all the good times you've had erase the madness from your mind and try to see the positive sidethings can only be as bad as you make them so think things through and overcome them when things that would make a grown man cry are happening right in front of your eyestake the time to reason things out don't go on an instinct or on a doubt discuss your problems with a friend 'cause life is a valuable thing to end your own life is something you shouldn't take so value the decisions that you make and before you decide to take those pills or pull that trigger - just don't
