Perfect Anomaly

Overworld

I am the fear inside you
I am the perfect being
I am the fantasy that noone would dare to have
And as the world around us now slowly turns to dust
It is the final madness
ReligionHidden deep in Lazarus' heart
Ultimate sin
Blood on the groundI am the life unchosen
I am the stillborn child
I am the fantasy that grows to deliverance
And as the world around us now slowly turns to dust
It is the greatest sadness
ReligionI am as God made me
I am reason
Cry for mankindAsking gently
Why did you abandon me
Was I not the perfect sun
Am I just the moon's mistake
Eden knew it and Babylon knew that
Vanity is the fall of man
In life and when I'm dead
I'll be what I should beIf every dream I had could take to the sky
I wonder if we could meet there
And in my soul a longing is felt
If you were here foreverIf you see me, if I see you
Will you see the solemn truth?
If you see me, if I see you
Will you bring me home?Eden knew it
Mankind destroyed it
Stories forgotten
A cycle that repeats itselfFaces
Moonlight
Innocent
FacesAsking gently
Why did you abandon me
Was I not the perfect sun
Am I just the moon's mistake
Eden knew it and Babylon knew that
Sanity is a frozen dream

In life and when I'm dead
I wish for more timeIf I could open all the windows
If I could leave it as a memory
If I could close the door behind me
Looking everywhere and noone's there beside meIf I could open all the windows
If I could leave it as a memory
Even without you, I'll find my own waySince I could get here without you
I won't look back at you anymore
Always and always I'll be myself
