I Feel Good

James Brown

I feel good
I knew that I would now
I feel good, I knew that I would now
So good, so good
I got youI feel nice, like sugar and spice
I feel nice, like sugar and spice
So nice, so nice
cause I got you(music break)When I hold you in my arms
I know that I can do no wrong
When I hold you in my arms
I know love can't do me no harmI feel good, I knew that I would
I feel good, I knew that I would
So good, so good
I got you(music break)When I hold you in my arms
I know you won't do me no wrong
When I hold you in my arms
I know love won't do me no harmI feel nice, like sugar and spice
I feel nice, like sugar and spice
So nice, so nice
I got youSo nice, so nice
I got youSo nice, so nice
I got you
