Warm Safe Place

Staind

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

Another day inside my world
I'm married to you and this road
Road that never lets me sleep
There's no way to escape, these demons
I am forced to keepAnd then I find you here
Through your eyes, everything's clear
And I'm home inside your arms
But I'm alone for nowI mean the best with what I say
It doesn't always sound that way
I never learned to work things out
'Cause in my family, all we ever seemed to do is shoutAnd then I find you here
Through your eyes everything's clear
And I'm home inside your arms
But I'm alone for now, alone for nowAnd I try to sleep
The drugs I take are killing me
I think of you to ease my pain
But you're so farAnd now it's time to say goodbye
I love you baby, please don't cryAnd then I find you here
Through your eyes, everything's clear
And I'm home inside your arms
But I'm alone for now
Alone for now
