Plexus

Sitting here wishing on a cement floor
Just wishing that I had just something you wore
    I put it on when I go lonely
    Will you take off your dress and send it to me?
    I miss your kissin' and I miss your head
And a letter in your writing doesn't mean you're not dead
    Run outside in the desert heat
    Make your dress all wet and send it to me
    I miss your soup and I miss your bread
And a letter in your writing doesn't mean you're not dead
    So spill your breakfast and drip your wine
    Just wear that dress when you're dying
    P-I-X-I-E-S
Sitting here wishing on a cement floor
Just wishing that I had just something you wore
    Bloody your hands on a cactus tree
    Wipe it on your dress and send it to me
    Sitting here wishing on a cement floor
Just wishing that I had just something you wore
