Can't Forget

Number One Fan

I know I change my mind all the time, but this one's gonna stick for awhile...You wanted everything right
I wanted everything wrong
That way I could walk away from the mess
'Cause you don't impress me no more
Don't try to explain it, can't talk your way from this one
I fell in love, and you didn't fall anywhere
I lost interest when you held my hand, this had to be love, you said
I remember every word that day, how could I forget.I can't forget
