One By One

Hudson Henry

I will see for myself
Through my own eyes
I think for myself
Learn to see through lieI won't follow
All those shadows
One by one they all fade away
I won't let go of everything that I know
They can't take my heart awayI will breathe for myself
Always stand my ground
I will speak for myself
I will not back downI won't follow
All those shadows
One by one they all fade away
I won't let go of everything that I know
They can't take my heart awayThere's no answer when you're lead astray
Free yourself and learn to fly awayI won't follow
All those shadows
One by one they all fade away
I won't let go of everything that I know
They can't take my heart away
