Everafter

The Grouch & Eligh

The sun stole your heart and then left you in the sane world
I do realize I'm often vague
The shore smells the sweetest when all that is left your pale your dry
And I do recognize I'm often vainEros stole your words and you weren't the same
-not scared of time and I do recognize there is more than fate the souls never-ending and worth the wait-It's safe to flyI do recognize this old souls faceEverafter... I do believe in Everafter. I do
