Catwoman

Shakespear's Sister

I was floating around the atmosphere
I liked what I saw, so I came down here
I was looking for something
Looking for somethingAnd the sky came up to meet with me
Magnetic forces greeted me
I was looking for something
Looking for somethingI'm a superhuman, 3D, baby
A Hollywood brainchild to drive you crazy
And I'm coming your way real soon
I'm the Catwoman from the moon
From the moonNow peace and love like a willow tree
Have hung their heads and wept for me
And I'm looking for someone
Looking for someoneSo Earth, don't you betray me
I'm willing to have your baby
Are you looking for someone
Looking for someone?I'm a superhuman, 3D, baby
A Hollywood brainchild to drive you crazy
And I'm coming your way real soon
I'm the Catwoman from the moonI'm a superhuman, 3D, baby
I'm a Hollywood brainchild to drive you crazy
And I'm coming your way real soon
I'm the Catwoman from the moonFrom the moon, yeah, yeah
From the moon
From the moon, yeah, yeah
From the moonFrom the moon, yeah, yeah
From the moon
From the moon
From the moon
