

There's More Pretty Girls Than One

George Hamilton IV

(There's more pretty girls than one)

I am a rambling man I just ramble this world around

I've always been a roubler boy since my girl turned me down

There's more pretty girls than one there's more pretty girls than one

Every town I ramble around there's more pretty girls than one Now listen to me all you ramblers let me tell you what you'd do

Don't fall in love with a pretty little girl unless you know she's true

There's more pretty girls than one...
