

Beyond the Astral

Brimstone Coven

Way down below us
The world is dark and cold
Far up above us
Are legends yet untold
Those secrets hide out in the shadows
The earth has kept them for so long
Truth to uncover
As time keeps rolling on
Journey for knowledge
Within the open mind
Vacate the body
And leave what's known behind
The freedom of a new perception
A concience void of all concern
Lost in euphoria
With no plans to return
Beyond . . . .
Beyond . . . .
