

Love Games

Sweet Sensation

You called me up and said, Ill see you tonight
Ill pick you up at a quarter to 9
But now its 10, looks like you've done it again
Was it a friend? Whats your excuse this time?Its your love games
(Love games)
Thats whats breakin us in two
And its your love games
(Love games)
Cant you see the things you do?Its your love games
(Love games)
Lets try to start anew
And stop your love games, love games
Its your love games, its your love gamesYou call me back to say, Im sorry, Im late
(I'm sorry)
Apologize and said you helped a friend
But was your friend a her or a him
Tell me when will this madness endIts your love games
(Love games)
Thats whats breakin us in two
And its your love games
(Love games)
Cant you see the things you do?Its your love games
(Love games)
Lets try to start anew
And stop your love games, love games
Its your love games, its your love gamesYou want your cake and eat it too
But I was told bout guys like you
I guess some things will never change
Just different players and different gamesSo, this is what you think loves all about
Games, when are you gonna grow up
If you wanna play games
Why dont you go ask your daddy for a quarterIts your love games
(Love games)
Its your love games
(Love games)
Its your love games, its your love gamesIts your love games
(Love games)
Thats whats breakin us in two
Its your love games

(Love games)

Cant you see the things you do?Its your love games

(Love games)

Lets try to start anew

And stop your love games, love games

(Im sorry)
