

Our Imaginary Rhino

Justin Roberts

I got a friend
And he's got a friend
That no one can see,
He's imaginary
And that isn't all
You see, he's not a human being
He's got a horn on his head
And a jungle for a bed,
Not ordinary

What's his name?
How should I know?
He's our imaginary rhino!
And we think he's more wonderful (wonderful)
Because he's invisible (invisible, visible)

Sometime's we're out in the sea
Sipping Southern sweet tea
Out of tiny china cups
When his rhino interrupts
To offer us cake
And other times, we're out in Albuquerque
Where the weather starts to feelin' murky
So we climb on his back
And sing "Bring my Bonnie Back"
And soon we're home

Sittin' down at the dinner table
Hoping Mom and Dad are able
To see that he's wonderful (wonderful)
Because he's invisible (invisible, visible)
Here we go,

Rah-na-na-na (rah-nah-nah)
Rah-na-na-na-na-na-na
(Rah rah for Rhino)
Rah-na-na-na (rah-nah-nah)
Rah-na-na-na-na-na-na
(Rah rah for Rhino)

Now we're almost at the end
But, see, our rhino's got this friend
That no-one can see,
He's imaginary.
So we sing,
"Rhino, come on, come on, come on,
Stop making things up"
But the rhino seems so sure
So politely we defer
And set the table
For more (more, more, more)

'Cause it's more than super fine-o
To be imaginary rhinos
To take the invisible (visible)
And make it all visible (visible, visible)
Here we go,

Rah-na-na-na (rah-nah-nah)
Rah-na-na-na-na-na-na
(Rah rah for Rhino)
Rah-na-na-na (rah-nah-nah)
Rah-na-na-na-na-na-na
(Rah rah for Rhino)
Rah-na-na-na (rah-nah-nah)
Rah-na-na-na-na-na-na
(Rah rah for Rhino)

I've got a friend
(rhino, come on, come on, come on)
And he's got a friend
(rhino, come on, come on, come on)
