

Shoot

Carina Round

Alone on the edge of something
Surround me a simple shell, you
In the forest frozen people
Dumbfound me, you found me I feel a shoot, I feel a thunderbolt
Under my body
I feel shoot, I feel a thunderbolt
The entrance of your soul Come with me falling through
The red clouds helplessly
Come kiss me so that
I can read your lips I feel a shoot, I feel a thunderbolt
Under my body
I feel a shoot, I feel a thunderbolt
The entrance of your soul Telling stories
All to hide the stories you cannot tell
Broken hearts and razorblades
The wreck of the tortured combination Tell me stories
All to hide the stories you cannot tell
Let me reach the stars
So I might slip into answers beyond this constellation Shoot you striptease heart in sight, a limelight
Shoot you striptease heart in sight, a limelight
Shoot you striptease heart in sight, a limelight
Shoot you striptease heart in sight, a limelight
