

The Sun Is Gonna Shine Again

Graham Parker

Pre>e b c#m a

Someday we will cross a bridge, someday we will see

E b c#m a

That I can lean on you and you can put your weight on me

A e a e g#m a b

And every man will get a chance to be what a man wants to be

A e a e g#m a b

And every woman will look at her child and know that he's growing up freeChorus 1

E a c#m e a c#m

The sun is gonna shine again we'll make it around that bend

E a g#m7 c#m

I'll walk one more mile with you cos you're my friend

A a e

The sun is gonna shine againSomeday we will ride a train that only seats one class

To a destination that feels like home at last, oh i

Know it seems impossible now, I know it seems like a joke

But if there's no purpose, if there's no love

We hang at the end of a ropeChrus 2

And the sun is gonna shine again we'll make it around that bend

We'll walk together, I swear cos you're my friend

The sun is gonna shine againInstrumental break over g#m / g#m / a / a / g#m / g#m / a / bI have had my mind made up and I have been in doubt

But sometimes even I can see the light that - that will not be put out

And every man will hold up his head and know it won't get beaten back down

And every woman will be not afraid to walk on the very same roadAnd the sun is gonna shine again we'll make it around that bend

We'll walk together, I swear cos you're my friend

A a e b

The sun is gonna shine againWe'll walk together, I swear cos you're my friend

The sun is gonna shine again [song ends with] a m eWith thanks to kirk anderson /pre>
