

Neal's Fandango (2016 Remastered)

The Doobie Brothers

Well, a travelin' man's affliction makes it hard to settle down
But I'm stuck here in the flatlands while my heart is homeward bound Goin' back, I'm too tired to roam, Loma Prieta my mountain home
On the hills above Santa Cruz, in the place where I spent my youth
Well it was Neal Cassady that started me to travelin'
All the stories that were told, I believed them every one
And it's a windin' road I'm on you understand
And no time to worry 'bout tomorrow when you're followin' the sun Papa don't you worry now and mama don't you cry
Sweet woman don't forsake me, I'll be comin' by and by Goin' back, I'm too tired to roam, Loma Prieta my mountain home
On the hills above Santa Cruz, in the place where I spent my youth

Songwriters

SIMMONS, PAT Published by

Lyrics © Warner/Chappell Music, Inc.

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnyrics.com/>