Artist Vs Poet

I'm alive for the very first time
I feel your voice in my ear
And your heart on my mind
Those sunset eyes
They're some kind of sign
Don't you love me today
Just to leave me tonight You are the fire that can fight the cold
I'll breathe you in and never feel alone
We are the chemicals that found our home
And we're going to react Oh I'm alive for the very first time
Got no hands in the air
Got you here by my side
Your body next to mine s some kind of sign
Don't you love me today
Just to leave me tonight You are the fire that can fight the cold
I'll breathe you in and never feel alone
We are the chemicals that found our home
And we're going to react I've been around the world enough to see
Our combinations only meant to be
You're the elements my body needs
And we're gonna react Gonna react You are the fire that can fight the cold
I'll breathe you in and never feel alone
We are the chemicals that found our home
And we're going to react
