I'm Not for You

Good Old War

In dreams our love has been redrawn
It shoots up over me then the image is gone
When I tried to follow her all the way home
She stopped and tells me she wants to be aloneShe said, "there's nothing you can hide, alright"
And if I'm not for you then I will know
When I'm talking to you
If doubt is breaking through your brow
I will knowThere's nothing I can do oooOoOoOooo
I'm not for youWell there's no sense in staying
You try to force these things they end up breaking
How you gonna live with me on your back
Oh it's getting close, it's getting close to thatAnd there's nothing you can hide, alright
And if I'm not for you then I will know
When I'm talking to you
If doubt is breaking through your brow
I will knowThere's nothing I can do
oooOoOoOooo
I'm not for you
