

Wastelands

Amber Run

If you don't know where you're going
You're scared of what you might find

 If you feel like an island

Stuck inside a maze in your mindWhen you drown, I'll drownWe started as a fever

 We turned into an ache that never goes

 And if I couldn't fix it

I guess, for now you're better off aloneWhen you drown, I'll drownAnd I know you'll fall in love again

 When you do, I hope you'll find somebody

 Who you can love like I love youIt happened piece by piece

 It happened just a little at a time

 And then the bruises started showing

We're joined up, and need a little lightWhen you drown, I'll drown

 When you drown, I'll drownAnd I know you'll fall in love again

 When you do, I hope you'll find somebody

 Who you can love like I love youYou drown, you drown

 You drown, oh, you drownAnd I know you'll fall in love again

 When you do, I hope you'll find somebody

 Who you can love like I love you
