

Dear Future Historiansâ€!

Enter Shikari

I never walked on the moon

I never saw the pyramids

I was never struck by famine or fortuneI never experienced the world you inhabit

I never experienced the world you inhabitI never swum with dolphins

I never sang from a mountain top

I was no inventor and no archaeologistAfraid not, afraid not

For I made my own discovery

Afraid not, afraid not

For I made my own discovery

Afraid not, afraid not, afraid not

Afraid not, afraid not, afraid notJust put your weight on my shouldersFor when I dive into your iris

My brain erupts

Into biochemical mayhem

And I feel like a man with two hearts

With two heartsAfraid not, afraid not

For I made my own discovery

Afraid not, afraid not

For I made my own discovery

Afraid not, afraid not, afraid notAfraid not, afraid not, afraid notJust put your weight on my shouldersPut your weight on my shoulders

Put your weight on my shoulders

Put your weight on my shoulders

(So put your weight on my shoulders)

Put your weight on my shoulders

(So put your weight on my shoulders)Put your weight on my shoulders

(So put your weight on my shoulders)

Put your weight on my shoulders

(So put your weight on my shoulders)
