

The Good Life

Idle Sons

Okay
I'll wait
Disappear
You disappear
Scratched the surface of love
Too late
Self destruction awaits
Every time
Every time I believe in you
That's what I thought
You'd let me fall
All the way
While the good life takes you away
Takes you away
Today
First to feel, first to say
Realize
I realize
You were bleeding me

That's what I thought
You'd let me fall
All the way
While the good life takes you away
Takes you away
If only
You could see
The soul bleeds
Into faint memories
Faint memories
That's what I thought
You'd let me fall
All the way
While the good life takes you away
Takes you away
Takes you away
Takes you away
Takes you away
