

Her (Loving You)

Glades

I can't make you say my name when all you know is hers.
You're falling for that someone else, I know. I can't make you feel this way my heart is sinking in.
There's no way to change it, for you. My fear is gone forever,
you're exactly what I needed.
Even though we're breaking
I'll be loving you, I'll be loving you. Here we go again now running 'round in circles
I don't care, my heart aches
'cause I'll be loving you, I'll be loving you. I thought you would feel the same your touch, it said it all.
But clearly you were quick to fly, now I know. I thought you would make it right and slowly start to mend this broken love affair of ours, but no. My fear is gone forever, you're exactly what I needed.
Even though we're breaking
I'll be loving you, I'll be loving you. Here we go again now
running 'round in circles
I don't care, my heart aches
'cause I'll be loving you, I'll be loving you. You stopped my heart made it an echo
of time gone by pulling the strings again. You make me cry you make me scream
but love is holding me to you. My fear is gone forever,
you're exactly what I needed.
Even though we're breaking
I'll be loving you, I'll be loving you. Here we go again now
running 'round in circles
I don't care, my heart aches
'cause I'll be loving you, I'll be loving you. (I'll be loving you, I'll be loving you) (i'll be loving you, I'll be loving you)
