

Worth It (feat. Iamsu!)

Tinashe

[Verse 1: Tinashe]
Ordinary Monday
Lunch with Alicia
That's when I seen ya
Posting up plugging your parking meter
My black Beamer
Really hoping you're a rapper or a singer
I ain't wanna talk, but he's in the street, dudes only want one thing, yeah
Said "You ain't gon' believe I've been single for so long"
It's true, been there because this money is gon' be hard to steer me wrong
And its gon' be hard to convince me
That you won't be like the ones who have dissed me
But if I was your girl, we'd be perfect
I'ma take the chance and let you be my man
Cause, baby...[Hook 1: Tinashe]
You're worth it, you're worth it
You make it all worth it, baby (You make it all worth it, baby)
Worth it, worth it, baby
You make it all worth it, worth it, yeah[Hook 2: Tinashe]
We the best we the best, we the best
We the best in the west
We the best we the best, we the best
We the best in the west[Verse 2: Tinashe]
Three years later, getting comfy and you're treating me bad
We even share morning showers on the weekends
[?]
Now we fight every day, we fight every day
Look back, in my mind, I'm like "Let him go"
Then you half-smile, I'm a sucker for dimples
No, I ain't got the time for the stressing in my life
Been there, cause this money [?] you only live one time
And its gon' be hard to convince me
That you could really do it to promise me
If you make a change, we'd be perfect
I'ma take the chance and let you be my man
Cause, baby...
