

Ten Years Ahead

The Soundtrack of Our Lives

Well it's so good, I didn't have to make it.

It's so good I didn't have to break it.

Cause I'm ten years ahead, and your the echo of the things I say,

Yes I'm ten years ahead....It's so hard I didn't want to guide you.

Right from the start I only wanted to please you, didn't mean to kill you.

But I'm ten years ahead, and your the echo of the things I say

Yes I'm ten years ahead....Well it's no good revolving around me.

You know you shouldn't try to stay behind me, when you cannot reach me.

Cause I'm ten years ahead, and your the echo of the words I say,

Yes I'm ten years ahead.
