Mercy on Apollo

Sinew

as the shadows grow
we dive into the tide of yesterday

when the colours bloom
to bleed away
we hide inside the frames in resistance of understanding today we die

while the story of us is written on we're reading ancient tales and the more you think to know 'bout me the more I disappear

acting for the perfect picture go shoot I'm already dead follow the traces that lead to nowhere

away from the dirt
away from here
(from you)

chasing the image of Paradise Bay come close to the dream
and lose reality
with me

with every name you give me I illuminate
and slowly turn to air

and any time I try to hold you tight
you slip away like sand applauding the sleeping audience

hurray we're gone

follow the traces that lead to nowhere
away from the dirt
away from here
(from you)

chasing the image of Paradise Bay
come close to the dream
and lose reality
with me

the hollywood stars
and broadway queens
the jackpot hits
in heroin dreams
the vast ideas
of genius minds
the who is who
of olympus' tribe
I wrap my head in crimson skies we drink champagne to the grace of mine you suit me well I suit you fine let's fuse to a sun in a meltdown hellfire

Lyrics submitted by Sascha Junker.

Lyrics provided by
https://damnlyrics.com/