

Secretly

Jennifer Lopez

It's like I'm lost
I don't know
But this feeling
That I have about you
Will you ever know? Secretly
I'm wanting you
And I'm hoping you want me too
I smell your scent across the room
And I can't wait to get next to you Whatever I see
When I look at you across the room
Whatever I hear
I wonder if he loves me too
Whatever I do
I just think about you for hours
Oh baby
Has got me thinking of you Secretly
I'm wanting you
And I'm hoping you want me too
I smell your scent across the room
And I can't wait to get next to you Whenever you speak
Whenever you move
Whenever you breath
Baby let me touch you
Please Secretly
I'm wanting you
And I'm hoping you want me too
I smell your scent across the room
And I can't wait to get next to you Secretly
I'm wanting you
And I'm hoping you want me too
I smell your scent across the room
And I can't wait to get next to you You smells so good
I just wanna kiss you
I wanna lay with you
I don't know how to tell you
