Echo

Blanca

One thousand four hundred and forty minutes
Everyday I gotta decide how am I gonna live it
I'm gonna take a chance to be the difference
Everyday I wanna find I'm alive for something
More than what I planned Higher than my ways
Greater than I am, all for You

I was made to leave a mark
Carry fire with my heart
No matter where I go I want my life to echo
You I was meant to make You shine
Be a reflection of Your light
In everything I do I want my life to echo You, You, You
To echo You, You, You

I hear You calling me beyond my limits
I gotta trust, You're enough I'm not alone, You are with me
I wanna know that when the race is finished
Every step, every breath, I lived for something
More than what I planned Higher than my ways
Greater than I am, this is all for You

Whatever You ask Whatever You want Use me, choose me
Wherever You go, I wanna go too
Till I echo, echo You
Whatever You ask Whatever You want use me for Your glory
Wherever You go, I wanna go too
Till I echo, echo, echo, echo You
