

Waiting

Kyle Riabko

Days are passing so slowly
Hours turning into weeks
And I am feeling so lonely
I guess, I'll have to wait and see
With time on my shoulders
I'm closer to the ground
But though I'm growing older
I'm glad to stick around
I am waiting all alone
Ready for our bliss
Counting down until you're home
I am waiting for your kiss
Nights are colder than ever
With no one in my loving arms
I know I'll feel so much better, yeah
When you and I are 'neath the stars
With time on my shoulders
I'm closer to the ground
But though I'm growing older
I'm glad to stick around
I am waiting all alone
Ready for our bliss
Counting down until you're home
I am waiting for your kiss
Waiting, waiting, waiting, waiting
I am waiting all alone
Ready for our bliss
Counting down until you're home
I am waiting for your kiss
I am waiting all alone
Ready for our bliss
Counting down until you're home
