

Thanking You

Tank

All out of pieces, all out of parts
All out of moves, all out of cards
All out of reason, all out of hope
All out of seasons, all out of growth
All out of joy, all out of sun

All out of laughter, all out of fun(Pre-Chorus)
I'm running out of the things that protect my heart
From this side of hurt I can see that I'm broken apart
Leaving me and telling me I could use some work
I thought I would die cause of how much it hurts
But I'm thanking you, I'm thanking you
Finding all the answers in every tear I cry
I ain't right for nobody if I ain't already right
So I'm thanking you, I'm thanking you woahh ohhh woahh ohhh no(Verse)

All out of rope, all out of chances
All out of songs, all out of dances
All out of umbrella, shelter for the rain
Been lost these days, been feelin' this pain
I gave you less, I thought I had more Forgot all those pieces back there on the floor(Pre-Chorus)
I'm running out of the things that protect my heart
From this side of hurt I can see that I'm broken apart(Chorus)
Leaving me and telling me I could use some work
I thought I would die cause of how much it hurts
But I'm thanking you, I'm thanking you
Finding all the answers in every tear I cry
I ain't right for nobody if I ain't already right
So I'm thanking you, I'm thanking you woahh[bridge]

I've been broke so long

This fight is helping me find my way and I know I'm gonna be complete someday ohhhhh yeah(Chorus)

Leaving me and telling me I could use some work (I could use)

I thought I would die cause of how much it hurts (ohhho)

But I'm thanking (said I'm thanking you), I'm thanking you (yeahhh)Finding all the answers in every tear I cry (ohhh uhh)

I ain't right for nobody if I ain't already right (soo I)

So I'm thanking you, I'm thanking you woahh(Chorus - repeat slow down no echo)

Leaving me and telling me I could use some work
I thought I would die cause of how much it hurts
But I'm thanking you, I'm thanking you
Finding all the answers in every tear I cry
I ain't right for nobody if I ain't already right
So I'm thanking you, I'm thanking you woah(outro) woah, woahohh yeah, yeah, yeah ohhwoah ohh woahh
I thank you, yeah, I thank you, for everything we won, for everything we lost for everything I gave, for everything it cost
I thank you, I thank you ohh
For everytime we faught, for everytime we cried
When we brought it back to life, ohh even when it died
I thank you, ohh I thank you yeah Everything I see, everything I know Everyway this heartbreak has caused me to grow
I thank you, yeah I thank you yeah
Listen, no regrets in love
Go through whats in life
We did it that way so this time I could do it right
I thank you, yeahhh, I thank you, woahh ooo
For helping me find me, I hope that you find you I'm happy now, and all that I can do is thank you ohh ohh ohh thank you
