

I Used To Have It All

Maverick Sabre

i remember how i use to feel things just seem so sweet now it don't and its so hard to see
i remember how i use to be
now its all just changed
and i'm cold
in the grave
feels like it wont
ever be
the same
no oh ooh
am i
am i too cold to ever change
but i use to have it all
but now
slipping
and im falling down
they seem so close
some how
they're all...
so ohhhh
far away.....
see something just aint right see a government kill others for a wage to copy waste life
i bleed
you bleed we
bleed together
getting lost up in this system that teaches us to be separate easier an ignorant when we're locked up in sections as one
we're strong
hold on never let up
i'm fed up
living in this world where they tell us were nothing without money to show and to represent us
but
fk my skin color
cause were still brothers and sisters

don't let them tell you any different
i'm still trapped in this system
i'm lost in this prison
still
still trapped in this prison
i'm locked in this system
use to have it all
slipping and i'm falling down
some how
too oooohhh
far....
away...
i'm slipping
some how
too oooo
and i use to have it all
but now
i'm slipping and im falling down
some how
they're all
sooo....
far away
