

I Want You

Martin Solveig

I got this crazy feeling, you're on my destiny.
I can really feel something, how come you don't notice me ?
I talk a little but much, you think I'm crazy and such
I imagine something rare, you are like you don't care.
Is there something I can do ?

You were made for me and I want you, are free and I want
You were made for me and I want you, are free and I want you.

I feel like a superstar, you seem a little shy.
I might try a little too hard and you still wonder why.
I believe I could be the answer, you are such a terrific dancer.
I want to make you sweat, you've seen nothing yet.
Is there something I can do ?

You were made for me and I want you, are free and I want
You were made for me and I want you, are free and I want
You were made for me and I want you, are free and I want
You were made for me and I want you, are I want
You were made for me and I want you, are free and I want
You were made for me and I want you, are free and I want
You were made for me and I want you, are free and I want
You were made for me and I want you, are free and I want you.

You are, you are free and I want
You are, you are, you are, you are free and I want
You were made for me and I want you, are free and I want
You were made for me and I want you, are I want

You were made for me and I want you, are free and I want
You were made for me and I want you, are free and I want
You were made for me and I want you, are free and I want
You were made for me and I want you, are free and I want you
