Dreamtime

Yes

Dreamtime begins
Where every song is the perfect place
Words never spoken
Are the strongest resoundingLife force is meant for us
To remember the stars, the earth
Still we forget
So asleep in this dreamtime
Lost in this dreamtime dayTake me up into that freedom place and justify Electrify the senses sharpen than the soul intensify
Nominate that we can break out take, take, take, take together
Hesitate and you will dance on this earth to, to foreverYou are the choice forever trying
Give you wings forever flying
You can fly, you can glide, you can dream
You can see through this interactive vision streamingYou have the faith, so busy trying
So let it go forever flying
To the sky, to the earth, to the moon, to the sea
To the sun, to the stars, to the dream you becomeNothing left to lose
Nothing more to prove
With wings of gold
You'll fly awayTalk among the prophets
Give you something
Talk among the teachers
Tell you something
Talk among your one true self now
Forever, forever, forever, foreverDreamtime begins
Where every song is the perfect place
Words never spoken
Are the strongest resoundingLife force is meant for us
To remember the stars, the earth
Still we forget
So asleep in this dreamtime
Lost in this dreamtime dayTake me up into that freedom place and justify
On the silent wings of gold my soul intensify
Nominate that we can take, take, take, take, take, together
Demonstrate that we can break it out and take it foreverHere's what you know
Here's what you're asking
The soul is everlastingYou can fly, you can glide
You can dream, you can see
Through this interactive vision streamingYou have the faith, so busy trying

So let it go forever flying
To the sky, to the earth, to the moon, to the sea
To the sun, to the stars, to the dream you becomeNothing left to lose, nothing more to prove
When wings of gold will fly awayTalk among the prophets, give you something
Talk among the teachers, tell you something
Talk among your one true self now
Forever, forever, forever, forever
