Car Ride Home

Audio Karate

so hold yourself together ive been good but youve been better now that all our misdirection is left right on meon the car ride home you tell me i was lost could you please tell me broken down and broken off from you insidewell ive been waiting for my longing soul to say and shes been holding on for a reason then i might stay if you hold yourself together ive been writing you this letter stating all the things you needed me to sayand so ahhh aint it funny how it used to be like a brokedown memory tonight (2x)so staying on is hard to do but breaking down is long over due and i, tend to leave my whoas behindwell ive been waiting for my longing soul to say and shes been holding on for a reason then i might stay
stating all the things you needed me to say
stating all the things you needed me to sayand so ahhh aint it funny how it used to be like a brokedown memory tonight (2x)
