

Verbal Kint

Link 80

At first look you would say that this man is just a gimp he talks a lot he lies a lot he walks with a bad limp but no one really knows him, no one takes the hint a mastermind in fool's disguise his name is Verbal Kint

chorus:

You could call him the devil the reason being this the best trick the devil pulled, convinced the world he didn't exist a devil in disguise, a wolf dressed as a lamb, just when you think he's gonna fold he's got 4 aces in his hand.

he runs the underworld and no one sees his face, he's killed 1000 men he's got a million different names he's the baddest mother fucker that i have ever known, he works hard for what he's got he's got a heart that's made of stone

chorus:

he'll make you doubt yourself he'll play tricks with your brain Verbal steals and Verbal kills it doesn't matter, it's all the same

he may seem a petty crook, but he's no ordinary man his name is Verbal Kint he's got the whole world in his hands
