Warpath

Ingrid Michaelson

Baby, you drive me so crazy
Baby, you drive me so crazy
Baby you drive me so mad
You got me running 'round town
Like a woman on a warpathYou put your spell on me
Got me rooted in the ground like an old oak tree
It's so good, can't you see?
That you've go the magic to set me freeBaby, you drive me so crazy
Baby, you drive me so crazy
Baby you drive me so mad
You got me running 'round town
Like a woman on a warpathYou got some magic touch
You got the hands to make 'em all buckle and blush
Blood runs fast, yeah you make it rush
I'm gonna live forever and it hurts so muchBaby, you drive me so crazy
Baby, you drive me so crazy
Baby you drive me so mad
You got me running 'round town
Like a woman on a warpathThere was a time when you were howlin' over me
But then the darkness fell
And now you sail the seaBaby, you drive me so crazy
Baby, you drive me so crazy
Baby you drive me so mad
You got me running 'round town
Like a woman on a warpathBaby, you drive me so crazy
Baby, you drive me so crazy
Baby you drive me so mad
You got me running 'round town
Like a woman on a warpath
Baby you drive me so mad
You got me running 'round town
Like a woman on a warpath
