

Preacher Man

Lynyrd Skynyrd

You know I'm dirty because it's in me
Life's not easy
And it's the heart that I won't change
I wouldn't be the same You see me one day and then the next day
I don't wanna play
I'm not the same dog you have known
It's not written in stone Oh, am I right or wrong?
Lookin' out for number one
I never stay too long
I'm there and then I'm gone I'm not the preacher man oh, can you understand?
It's a game of win or lose
I've got an evil eye you know sometimes I might lie
Oh, I'm not the preacher man, yeah, yeah Saint was a sinner, ain't he a winner?
And did you hear him say
"I didn't lie, I just misled"?
It's all in the head Oh, ain't it funny, how little money
Cheap talkin' honey
Can turn a sunny day to gray
And we all got to pay Oh, am I right or wrong?
Lookin' out for number one
I never stay too long
I'm there and then I'm gone I'm not the preacher man, oh can you understand?
It's a game of win or lose
I've got an evil eye, you know sometimes I might lie
Oh, I'm not the preacher man Yeah I'm not the preacher man, oh can you understand?
It's a game of win or lose
I've got an evil eye, you know sometimes I might lie
Oh, I'm not the preacher man I'm not the preacher man
I'm not the preacher man
I've got an evil eye, you know sometimes I might lie
Oh, I'm not the preacher man I'm not the preacher man
I'm not the preacher man
I'm not the preacher man
